

DOINGS OF THE WEEK IN AND AROUND REDWOOD CITY

Miss Cora E. Clute, local school nurse, addressed the members of the Redwood City Woman's Club Thursday afternoon on matters pertaining to Red Cross.

Miss Helen Fromm returned home Monday after a four-month's trip throughout the United States. Miss Fromm left in August and went directly to New York where she was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Abbott. Together with Mrs. Abbott she visited all the prominent summer resorts and on her return spent a week in Chicago. She came to California via the southern route and visited in Southern California.

Edward Hevey, who graduated from Stanford University this week as an A. B., was in Redwood City Thursday visiting friends before returning to his home in Brentwood. Mr. Hevey expects to return to Stanford after the first of the year to work for his degree of Master of Education.

Wilfred Steel of San Francisco visited local friends last Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Mesquite, who with Mrs. E. R. Bell has charge of the San Gregorio Hotel, was in Redwood City last Monday.

Louis Uhlenberg has given up his position with the Consolidated Glove and Hosiery Co. of San Francisco, and will enter upon the duties of bookkeeper for the Palo Alto Furniture Company next Tuesday.

The many friends of S. P. McCrea, formerly principal of the high school will be glad to learn that he is much improved in his condition. J. H. Harrison, his nephew, who is a local visitor this week, has just come from Madiera where the McCreas are now living. He says that his uncle is much better.

Paul Gerrish, teacher of mathematics in Sequoia High School, was last week notified that he had been appointed a second lieutenant in the Reserve Officers. He has been assigned to a Coast Artillery company and will be subject to call for summer training in order that he may be prepared should the necessity arise. Mr. Gerrish was an officer during the war.

Mrs. Lewis E. Adams of South San Francisco left this week for her former home in Texas to spend the holidays with her parents. She will be away a couple of months. Mr. Adams did not accompany her as he will be busy with the County Board of Education during his vacation, and as school will reopen in two weeks he would have had only a short stay, so decided to forego his trip until a later time.

Miss Elinor McGittigan arrived home Wednesday from San Rafael to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. McGittigan.

Professor and Mrs. Argo entertained the high school faculty last Monday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Bradshaw, who were recently wed at Reno, Nev. The affair was a delightful affair and the beautiful bride won many friends at first introduction.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harrison and little son are visiting at the home of Mrs. Harrison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Woodhams, for the holidays. Mr. Harrison is manual training instructor in the Stockton high school.

SAN CARLOS ITEMS

The passing of Prof. William T. Reid, at one time president of the University of California, at his home in Berkeley last Sunday saddened the hearts of many of the old residents of this vicinity who had known Dr. Reid and his estimable wife during the many years he presided over the private school for boys at Belmont, which bore his name and of which he was the owner and founder. At the time Dr. Reid was forced to retire from the control and management of the school a few years ago on account of failing health and advancing years many regretted that his son, William T. Reid, Jr., could not see his way clear to go on with the work and continue the thorough and splendid curriculum which had been so splendidly built up and maintained by the father and its founder and thus continue this fine educational institution as a monument and a memorial to one who so richly deserved it, as one of our natural born educators, who was wonderfully blessed with every attribute that enables one to mould the characters and shape the lives of the young men in his charge. No one better understood the young boy, nor had greater sympathy for him in his trials and weaknesses, than did these two lovable people, Prof. and Mrs. Reid. They were as father and mother to every boy who was placed in their care. This community sustained a great loss when the Reid school at Belmont was forced to close on account of the poor health of its owner and founder. Asa Hull and his sister, Mrs. R. J. Shields, of this place attended the funeral of Dr. Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. Rupert C. Johnson and Mr. Johnson's father, Jere J. Johnson, went to Napa Sunday to help complete the annual reunion of the Johnson and Lewis families at the home of Philo S. Johnson, S. P. agent at that place. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Jones, who formerly lived here, will come up from Los Angeles to join the party. Miss Claire Jones, one of the prominent students at the University of California, will also join her parents and relatives at the family reunion celebration. It is expected that the Jones' will stop at San Carlos for a day's visit on their return trip to the south.

Joe Olson and J. M. Ramos, contractors and builders, recently from Portland, Oregon, with their families have taken apartments at the San Carlos apartments on Cypress avenue. Mr. Ramos is a native son, and was born and raised in Mayfield.

Mrs. Rufus O. Cook and her mother, Mrs. M. E. Stanley, were guests of Dr. Stanley, resident physician and surgeon at San Quentin most famous surgeon in the country in the matter of successful gland operation, and also for the Stanley nose, is the brother of Mrs. Cook. If we had the time we'd like to go over to San Quentin and see the doctor about the gland rejuvenation ourselves, as we're getting just about the age when we feel the need of a brace such as he describes the gland injection to be. It might be a good cure for the dope habit so prevalent in the movie actor world.

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES AT WOODSIDE

The pupils of Mrs. Albert Meyer had their Christmas tree on Friday morning. The program consisted of speaking and singing by the children. Mrs. Albert Audiffred played the piano and gave a vocal selection. Other piano selections are given by Helen Abraham, Evelyn Meyer and Mrs. O. E. Blackington. When the tree was lighted Mrs. Nat Messer took charge of the class giving a party for her son, Thayer. Refreshments were furnished for all by Mrs. Nat Messer.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Miss Catherine Baumgarten, who was teacher of the Pigeon Point school near Pescadero until she broke her leg in October, has returned to the district but not to teach. At a party given by Mrs. Jay F. Steele last week Miss Baumgarten announced her engagement to Mr. William H. Steele, a well known farmer of the south end of the county. The date of the wedding was not announced but it will be held as soon as the young lady has fully recovered from her recent injury.

CLUBMAN DIES SUDDENLY

William H. Fairbanks, a former president of the Family Club and for a number of years general manager of the Northern Commercial Company of San Francisco, died suddenly last Saturday at the Family Farm near Woodside. Mr. Fairbanks was apparently in perfect health and was chopping wood when he complained of a pain in his chest and died before medical aid could be summoned. Mr. Fairbanks was a native of Petaluma aged 50 years. He was a bachelor and a fine upstanding man. The funeral was conducted Wednesday by the Family Club and interment was at Cypress Lawn cemetery.

Emmet Corwin, who has been doing animal husbandry work in the valley since his graduation from Davis last summer is home visiting his mother and sisters.

At Baby's Shrine

Without the cares we grown folks meet,
Without a thought of pain.
The baby with its pattering feet
Goes to the shrine again
To stand, enraptured, gazing wide,
To worship there in glee.
Where super-joys of Christmastide
Reward the devotee.

BLOCK "S" BOYS ENTERTAINED

The girls of the Sigma Delta Kappa of the Sequoia Union High School entertained the Block "S" boys at a turkey dinner in the Domestic Science rooms Thursday night. There are now forty boys, students or former students who are entitled to wear the "S" and they were there good and strong to take whatever might come their way. Some of them caught a leg as it flew past while the others were just as well contented with the white meat. Everything which goes to make a good Christmas dinner was in evidence and a bunch of high school boys can certainly punish the cats. After the dinner speeches were made by Mr. Argo, Mr. Bradshaw, Mr. D. W. Williams, Miss Bradley, Miss Boyle, Mr. James Hedge, and Mr. Frank Griffin who were guests and by Brick Allain, captain of this year's 130-pound team, which lately brought honor to the school. After the boys had helped the girls clean up, they all went out to the Woman's Club house and enjoyed a couple of hours of dancing.

TO OPEN UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

The restaurant formerly known as the Saddle Rock has been taken over by John Trane of San Mateo, who is refurnishing the place and fitting it out for an up to date, modern restaurant. The whole place has been given a coat of paint and comfortable booths have been installed. The new management expect to have a first class confectionery store as well as a restaurant and will serve merchants' lunches at noon.

The best sign of a real genius is love of humanity.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES AT MOUNT CARMEL CHURCH

High Mass will be celebrated in Mount Carmel Church at midnight on Christmas Eve. The Boys' Choir will sing the processional, the responses and the recessional. The Parish Choir will sing the liturgical parts from Turton's Mass in D, Battman's Mass in F and Concone's Mass in F. At the Offertory Mr. Joseph Judge will sing Adam's "Noel." Mrs. Harry Zimmerman will be soloist for Vincent Novello's arrangement of "Adeste Fideles." The choir is composed of the following: Sopranos, Mrs. Harry Zimmerman, Mrs. W. T. Chubbuck, Miss Lorraine Dickey, Miss Charlotte Bullivant, Miss Angelina Paso and Miss Grace O'Sullivan; altos, Mrs. J. P. Weller and Mrs. J. R. Fox; tenors, Messrs. Joseph Judge and H. Brown; basses, Messrs. P. X. and Bernard Schwelbert; organist, Miss Margaret Cussen. Masses will also be celebrated at 8 and 10:30 a. m. Christmas Day. Holy Communion will be distributed at the Midnight Mass. The fast to be observed for communion commences at 12 o'clock midnight, only about half an hour before communion is received, though it seems a better preparation to abstain from food and drink after supper on Sunday evening. Confessions will be heard Sunday from 3 to 6 and from 7 to 10 p. m.

Miss Ruth Mantz is visiting her mother, Mrs. Annie Mantz, over the holidays. Miss Mantz has just returned from the French Hospital at San Francisco, where she underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils.

You may be thankful that you are alive, but are other people?

PIONEER PASSES

Mrs. Annie Gunning, who passed away at her home on Heller street, Tuesday evening, was buried Thursday morning at Holy Cross cemetery. A requiem mass was celebrated at Mt. Carmel church where the deceased had so long been a communicant. Mrs. Gunning was a native of Ireland, aged 86 years. As a girl she came to this country and was married the late John Gunning. They shortly afterwards came to Redwood City and made their home here. Mr. Gunning was a horse shoer and blacksmith and was until his death one of the prominent and prosperous business men of this section. The couple had three children, the oldest, John Gunning, Jr., was for many years night police officer for Redwood City, and his death several years ago was mourned by the whole community. The others are Mrs. Ella Sullivan of this city, and Emmett Gunning, an employee of the Public Works department of Berkeley.

Although the death of Mrs. Gunning was sudden, it was not unexpected as her great age had caused a natural feebleness to come upon her. The deceased had lived a quiet home life and there were very few in this city that knew there was a woman in their midst who had spent more than sixty years in the same town and had seen it grow from a mere hand full of houses to one of the finest home towns in the state.

Somewhat nothing that an unusually eloquent speaker says ever sounds reasonable after you get outside the hall.

RED CROSS ELECTS OFFICERS FOR ENSUING THREE YEAR TERM

Redwood City Chapter American Red Cross met in the grammar school Monday night. Mr. A. E. Monteith, chairman of the chapter, presided and routine business was transacted. Mr. L. P. Behrens showed that the treasury is in a very bad financial condition, only 81 members having joined during the recent drive. It was decided that an appeal should be made to all former members to send in their dollar to the treasurer or to the secretary, Mrs. Mary Winter.

The nomination committee submitted the names of Mrs. A. Kincaid, Mrs. Mary Winter, Mrs. Jos. McAuliffe, Mrs. Lila Kirkpatrick, Roy W. Cloud and L. P. Behrens as directors for the following three years; and Mrs. Zoe Thorpe as director for one year vice Mrs. Robert Brown, deceased. The report of the nominating committee was adopted.

A PALO ALTO INSTALLATION

Tuesday evening a number of local Masons went to Palo Alto to witness the installation ceremonies of Palo Alto Lodge. There was a reason for Redwood City's interest in the matter as the newly elected worshipful master of that lodge is Mr. Alex M. Cuthbertson, science teacher in Sequoia High School, who resides here. The newly appointed senior deacon of Palo Alto Lodge is Harry T. Tyler of the Mark E. Ryan Electrical Company of this city.

The meeting was followed by a banquet at which a number of fine addresses completed an enjoyable meal.

PIPE LINE ACROSS BAY AUTHORIZED

City Engineer M. M. O'Shaughnessy of San Francisco is in receipt from the war department of its approval of the aqueduct pipe line project of conveying water across the lower part of San Francisco bay to a point near Dumbarton. The aqueduct will be 22,000 feet in length. Plans and specifications for the trestle approaches have been made and bids will be called for in the near future. This pipe line will carry Spring Valley water to reservoirs in the hills west of Redwood City and will serve as an emergency supply during the completion of the Hetch Hetchy project. Excellent progress is reported on the Hetch Hetchy work. A trifle more than two miles of drilling of the 19-mile tunnel is to be done to finish that part of the work. Many yards of fill work is reported for the past thirty days.

MISS PHYLIS CONGDON ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT

Miss Grace Phyllis Congdon of San Mateo surprised her many friends last Saturday by announcing her engagement to Lawrence Blennerhassett. Miss Congdon is a deputy in the office of County Clerk Elizabeth Nash, which position she has filled for the past two and a half years with much credit to herself. Blennerhassett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wallace of Long Beach. He is a former Stanford student and is connected with the mechanical engineering firm of G. F. Braun & Co. of San Francisco. The company now is erecting a factory at Alhambra, near Pasadena, and after the wedding, set for next June, the couple will make their home there.

NEW AGENCY IN SAN MATEO

The Oakland Motor Car Co. has opened a sales and service station at the Sunshine Service Co., San Mateo, on the highway at 12th avenue. Oakland owners may now obtain service without going to San Francisco.

"SONNY" SAYS THAT'S THE First National Bank

"I'VE OPENED AN ACCOUNT THERE"—just like dads—its helpful—and needful too

The following were then elected chapter officers for the ensuing year: Chairman—Roy W. Cloud. Vice Chairman—Mrs. Z. T. Thornton. Secretary—Mrs. Mary Winter. Treasurer—L. P. Behrens.

An executive committee consisting of M. E. Ryan, C. M. Dossex and Mrs. Viola Poole was elected to care for all important matters between regular meetings. A committee from the American Legion consisting of Percy Long and H. Hildebrand then consulted the Red Cross and Mr. Long was authorized to purchase a number of articles which are to be sent to the Base Hospital for the soldier boys who are sojourning there. The things to be selected are not of very great value but they will help to bring the Christmas spirit to a place where Christmas spirit is needed.

REDWOOD MAN HELD BY SAN JOSE POLICE

Harry Allen of Jeter street in Redwood is being held for investigation by the San Jose police following the murder of Walter Daughy of Palo Alto last Thursday night on the Mission San Jose road. Daughy and Allen were returning from a business trip, when, according to Allen, they were attacked by highwaymen who beat up Daughy and shot him. Allen proceeded to San Jose with Daughy's body in the car. He was taken into custody by the authorities of San Jose, who are seeking more information in the case. Daughy formerly owned a garage in Palo Alto and Allen was employed by him.

50 VARIETIES CAULIFLOWER AT MORSE SEED FARM

Horticultural Commissioner Tate announces that, though the country of the Morse Seed Company, he is enabled to offer the opportunity to any one interested of seeing about fifty varieties of cauliflower being raised at the trial grounds of that company at San Carlos. Mr. Tate, the superintendent, will gladly show visitors around and explain the good and the bad qualities of the different kinds. Mr. Tate suggests that anyone contemplating the raising of cauliflower or broccoli should avail themselves of this opportunity to obtain much valuable information, especially at the present time when most of the varieties are at their best.

MARY ANN DENNY PASSES AWAY

Mary Ann Denny of Arch Street, widow of the late James Denny who passed away recently in this city, was called by death last Wednesday. Mrs. Denny was a native of Ireland and 69 years of age. The interment was held last Friday and was in Holy Cross cemetery, the funeral being from the parlors of Layne and Tinny and thence to Mt. Carmel Catholic Church.

A NEW VENTURE

It is rumored that a big lumber company of San Francisco has purchased the land adjoining R. F. Chilton's property on the Highway, just across from the new high school site. The price paid was in the neighborhood of $10,000 and the concern contemplates the immediate starting of a lumber business.

LOUIS UHLENBURG ENGAGED

An announcement that came as a distinct surprise to their many friends here was that of the engagement of Louis H. Uhlenburg and Miss Jessie E. Wright of San Jose. Both young people are well known here, as both hold office in the district organization of the Christian Endeavor. Mr. Uhlenburg is a Redwood boy and a graduate of the local grammar school. He is also a graduate of Heald's business college. At present he is connected with the Consolidated Glove and Hosiery Company of San Francisco. Miss Wright is a very talented young lady, she having been instructor in stenography in Heald's business college where the acquaintance which has culminated in their engagement was first formed. Miss Wright is now private secretary in the Williams Mercantile Company of San Jose.

Mr. P. A. Nicholls, the Oakland sales representative, will make regular calls at Redwood City and will be glad to render service or assistance to any present or future Oakland owners. The 1923 model Oakland cars are now out and may be seen at the Sunshine Service Co.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

It is a season of good cheer and rejoicing, this Christmas tide, a season of joy and kindness, when the heart of man is open and the plea of the needy is not unavailing. It is the season of the year when the eyes of little children are brightest, and we see them now, these little tots, rows of them with noses flattened against windows where, with tinsel and holly, the toys and trinkets, so dear to the childish heart, shine with a luster and attraction seen at no other time of the year. There is an all pervading benediction in this Christmas season when even the bell of the old town clock seems to tremble with joy as it strikes out the hours of this, the world's most sacred day.

It is well for this old world of ours, hard and thoughtless in its strife for gold, to forget for a day the sordid greed of competition and its cold mercenary calculation, and to let the warming flame of brotherly love break, if only for a day, the hardened shell of self-interest. The world is better for each succeeding Christmas, and we are glad that we have such a day in our calendar.

We wish to thank our many friends, advertisers and subscribers for their loyal support during the year and for the prosperity which their support has made possible for us. We wish to extend to our every friend joys and blessings without stint this Christmas season and through the new year that is to follow it. It is our sincere wish that the spirit of Christmas may not be confined to next Monday but extend throughout the year. And so we say with Tiny Tim, "God bless us, every one."

Give me the house where the toys are strewn,
Where the dolls are asleep in the chairs,
Where the building blocks and the toy balloons
And the soldiers guard the stairs.
Let me step in the house where the tiny cart
With the horses rules the floor,
And rest comes into my weary heart,
For I am at home once more.

THAT BRIDGE

The Board of Supervisors did well last Monday when they laid over the application for a franchise, to build a bridge from Little Coyote to Alvarado, which Colonel Webb and his associates requested. We do not inject any argument into the proposition at this time. We believe that Dumbarton is the logical location for a bridge but if Colonel Webb wants to build a bridge it's all right with us, but we don't want to see an exclusive franchise for fifty years granted. We may need eight or ten bridges across the bay within the next fifty years. No Board of Supervisors should have the right to grant an exclusive franchise for so long a time. Such an action might deprive our children of a right they may sorely need, and furthermore it would tend to create a monopoly, and monopolies are contrary to law. So we hope our District Attorney will instruct the Supervisors that they cannot grant an exclusive franchise.

THE BOND ELECTION

We were not greatly surprised at the result of the Bond election held Tuesday. We had hoped that the election would carry but we realized there was opposition to the proposition and we knew that a two-third vote was going to mean a great effort on the part of the proponents of the proposition. That effort was not put forth. Those who were in favor were asked to vote accordingly. Those who were against the project were not argued with, they were simply told what it was hoped they would do and the matter was left there.

Some day when land is worth about five times as much as it is now the people will decide that we must have a playground. Then houses will be moved and barns torn down to make room for what we could now have at a reasonable price in a fine location. However we respect the opinion of everyone. Those who were against the proposition had just as much right to their opinion as we had to ours.

ENFORCEMENT

The Wright Act which provides that local police officers must enforce all national laws went into effect yesterday. We are glad that this is so and trust that there will be no evasions of the provisions of the law.

We are not taking prohibition into consideration when we are saying this; but there has come to be such a general contempt for law that the matter was becoming dangerous. There never has been a time when crime was more rampant. It is impossible to pick up a daily paper without seeing big headlines announcing a murder, a burglary or the holdup of a mint. This is no chance proposition. It is because the youth of the land has seen his elders breaking the law time after time, and he feels that there is no reason why he should not do his part. After a boy or girl breaks the law once it becomes easier to break it again and so crime results.

We notice that Congress has asked its members to refrain from patronizing bootleggers—we notice in the same paper that a bootlegger has been apprehended in Washington and that his list of deliveries contains some people who should under no circumstances be his patrons. We were told recently of a high army officer who gave the toast, "My Country, right or wrong, my country," and he drank the toast with wine. As we said in the beginning, we are not talking prohibition, but if there is a prohibition law the ones who are sworn to see that the laws are kept should not be the ones to break them. And further than this, they should be the ones to see that the laws are kept. Otherwise we predict that the youth of the land will come upon very troublous times in the not far distant future.

May the officers of Redwood City do their duty.

most cleaners can only attempt.

Flimsy silks, crepe de chene or beautiful evening gowns costing hundreds of dollars are sent to us every day for cleaning or re-dyeing.

Our years of experience in handling this class of fine work has placed this organization in a preeminent position among those who know and appreciate the quality and high standard of all of our work.

Our large volume of business

(over 100,000 customers) permits us to do the very finest work at the lowest consistent cost. You'll save money and have the absolute security of safety in sending us all of your cleaning and dyeing.

The F. THOMAS Parisian

Our Xmas Custom

Of all the festivals in the year, that of Christmas is perhaps the greatest. At this time, more than at any other, the whole world seems to be united in a common joy. Our hearts are extended to our fellow men in a friendly greeting, the spirit of generosity rules our lives. At this time families unite. The wanderer is welcomed to the hearth, and all are forgotten in the feasting and merrymaking. The unfortunate, those with no one to care for them, are brought to the kind thoughts of those who bring them cheer. And so it is that the Christmas season with its beautiful and symbolic customs makes the whole world happy.

The Christmas season has always been a time of feasting and revelry. Some of the customs which are now a part of the celebration of this beautiful festival were very popular in the early days of Christianity. But strange as it seems, many of the present day customs, characteristic of the season sprang from Paganism, and were in vogue long before the birth of Christ; while others, essentially Christian, were introduced by the later centuries. As time passed, Christianity divested these customs and ceremonies of their Pagan significance, clothed them with Christian meaning and symbols, and made them a part of the celebration of the Christmas festival.

It was customary, among nearly all of the ancient peoples to hold religious celebrations at the end of each year. The Romans, Chinese, Egyptians and Norwegians, at the end of their winter solstice, held religious celebrations in honor of the Sun God.

The spirit of merrymaking, and the giving of presents was a mark of mutual good will, so common in the ancient world, that it was the Roman festival of the Saturnalia, a festival held in honor of Saturn, the Father of the Gods. Festivities began about the middle of December and lasted for a period of two or three weeks. During this time all business was suspended, trade was declared off, and slaves were freed. So that all could participate in the universal rejoicing. Friends exchanged gifts, salutations and greetings and well wishes were expressed, and presents were given to the reigning Emperor.

The use of greens for decorating churches, homes and stores dates back to ancient times. In the Roman festival of the Saturnalia, the temples, homes and public buildings were decorated with evergreen and with holly and mistletoe. The mistletoe has come to us from the traditions of Scandinavian mythology. To this day the custom of hanging branches of mistletoe is common to all Norse people. Sacred also to the Druids, it was hung above the doorways of homes as a sign to the deities of the woods that they might enter and obtain shelter and food.

The Christian Fathers have given to the mistletoe a very beautiful interpretation, looking upon it as an illustration from nature of the great mystery of Christmas. The little plant which blooms in the middle of winter standing out fresh and green from the leafless branches of the oak tree, deriving its life and substance from the life-giving life source, was frequently looked upon as a symbol of the incarnation in the middle ages.

The use of greens for ornamenting purposes, our Christmas tree so indispensable to the season in our own time. The custom of the Christmas tree, originating with the Norwegians, because of its foliage was so green in the middle of winter, and they regarded it as an emblem of the everlasting Creator, was introduced as a custom into France and England in 1840.

In all lands and in all centuries, foods and beverages have been a prominent factor in the celebration of the Christmas festival. The people of olden times, in dispensing the cheer of the season, numbered the birds of the air and the elements among the recipients of their bounty. The Scandinavian custom of putting out a sheaf of corn on Christmas morning so that the birds might have a share in the festivities was observed also in some villages of England. For many years the elements were fed by throwing meat into the air and burying food in the ground. This custom was probably instituted to do honor to the gods who controlled the elements.

On Christmas morning, in times gone by, every English gentleman threw his doors wide open to friends, tenants and neighbors and his table was laden with the best of food. The weight of the bird's head, beef, turkey and plum pudding. Everybody participated in the revelry, and as the saying goes, the feast "oft would cheer a poor man's heart through half the year."

Carol singing comes from the time of the birth of Christ itself when the angels announced their message to the lowly shepherds on the hillside of Judea. The earliest notes that we know of date from the eleventh century and the earliest carol, the thirteenth century. Adeline Fideles was first known in the seventeenth century.

In Germany, Switzerland and Holland there exists the custom of regarding St. Nicholas as secretly visiting the earth on the eve of his feast and leaving gifts for the children. The time of St. Nicholas is founded on tradition but it is probable that he has been identified with the mythical Santa Claus of modern times, who so delights the children of our country by his fanciful distribution of gifts.

And thus we see that out of every land and from all ages, the customs and the legends have come down to us, embodying in their significance the spirit of good will and happiness. Those of pagan origin, softened as they have come by the passage of centuries, and those that spring directly from the time of the Savior's birth, are all particularly fitted to celebrate the anniversary of the coming of the Divine Babe—the Little Child—God's greatest gift to suffering humanity—Every Buddy's.

DR. JORDAN RETURNS HOME

Dr. David Starr Jordan, president emeritus of Stanford University, returned yesterday from a two months' visit to Japan with Mrs. Jordan on the Pacific Mail steamer President Cleveland. He declared that the military group in Japan had "lost its grip" and that the Washington disarmament conference had strengthened the friendship between this country and Japan.

At Tokio Dr. Jordan was given the Order of the Rising Sun with a double set of rays. This is one of the highest orders conferred by Japan and was presented to Dr. Jordan through the Imperial University in recognition of his scientific work and on behalf of the 200 Japanese who were Stanford students under Dr. Jordan and who are now leaders in the empire.

ALBERT MICHAELS SELLS HOME

The Michaels home on Jefferson street was sold this week by Letts & White, the Highway realtors. They also sold another of the Hansen cottages on Brewster street to Mary A. Pearce and a bungalow in Emerald Lake Park to W. H. Gibbons of San Francisco for the account of Percy Jarvis. This firm also has deposits on several other properties from which you will hear very soon.

You may think you have all the troubles in the world, but unless you have bought a second-hand car you have really misad most of them.

Since the bartenders disappeared there aren't as many good mixers.

MENLO PARK NEWS

Mr. Fred Worrell, who has been in Chicago for some time, has returned to her home in Stanford Park.

The postoffice and American Railway Express office have been deluged with business during the past week. Both concerns have handled more packages this year than at any previous year. All records have been broken. This speaks well for the prosperity of the community. The express company will remain open all day tomorrow for the accommodation of the public.

Hip-pocket flasks which reposed among gifts articles displayed in several store windows of Palo Alto were withdrawn by merchants today pursuant to requests of dry workers, who contended the display of such articles tended to encourage defiance of the prohibition law. In only one instance, according to the report made, was there a refusal by a merchant to comply with the request.

Rumor has it that thirty acres of land owned by Pope and Talbot at Atherton and recently sold to San Francisco parties for a townsite, has been purchased by a number of wealthy residents of Atherton to prevent formation of a town. It is also rumored that a big profit was realized by the San Francisco investors.

Mr. J. Friana will move to his new home in the Barney tract the first of the year.

St. Joseph's parochial school closed on Thursday with appropriate exercises for Christmas vacation. The Reverend Mother who recently returned from Rome was tendered a reception by the children. The Christmas tree for the school will be held next Tuesday, when a delightful program will be rendered.

by the pupils. The parents of the children will be present. Santa Claus will appear with his reindeer to distribute his gifts.

The engagement of Miss Lillian Hopkins, the pretty and charming daughter of Mrs. Sherwood Hopkins, to E. B. Pond, has been announced. The charming bride-to-be resided at the O'Kane estate with her mother several years ago. She is an unusually beautiful girl with a winsome manner that charms all with whom she comes in contact.

Mrs. Charles Merrill of Menlo Park has purchased a valuable piece of property at the corner of Waverly street and university at a cost of $25,000. Mrs. Merrill contemplates developing this choice holding.

The Little Green Door is the Mecca for the youngsters these days. The big variety of toys and novelties and the attractive Christmas tree, suitably decorated, with the season's good things attract the little ones who gaze in wonderment at the large display.

The old Holt school, erected many years ago on the site of the ancient Atherton home, is being wrecked and hauled away. The building and surrounding land were recently purchased by a number of wealthy local residents for a circus ground where performances are to take place and the proceeds to be given to the Stanford Convalescent Home for children. The school was established about twenty-five years ago by the late Ira G. Holt, at one time State Superintendent of Schools. It was a boarding institution for many years under the able supervision.

Captain D. Harkins and Lieutenant Harkins, sons of Mrs. Charles Harkins of University Heights and the late Major Harkins, have retired from the army after serving their country in France. Both young men entered the army during the world war serving in Europe, since war the young men have done duty in all parts of the United States, the Philippines and Honolulu. Their father, the late Major Harkins, was a noted Indian fighter serving in many of the Indian wars in the seventies. The young officer leaves the service with creditable records.

Miss Olga Meyer of Menlo Heights and Miss Mary Moynihan of Palo Alto left Saturday on the Venezuela for New York, going by way of the Panama Canal. During their absence they will also visit South America.

Miss Sarah Morrison Cunningham, daughter of Mrs. James Cunningham of Menlo Park, was married Saturday afternoon at St. Luke's church, San Francisco, to Connelius van Houtert Engert of Washington, D. C. A wedding reception was held in the red room of the Fairmont Hotel.

The bride was a relief worker in France during the war and during the past several years has divided her time between California and New York, the Cunninghams passing their summers in San Francisco and down the Peninsula. Mrs. Cunningham and daughters leave this week for New York to spend the winter. The newlyweds will make their home in Washington, where Engert is assistant to the chief of the Near East division of the Department of State. He is a graduate of the University of California and of Yale and during the war was with the American legation at Teheran and at The Hague.

The express office will remain open on Sunday, the 24th, all day.

The Menlo Park grammar school held its Christmas exercises yesterday afternoon. The assembly hall was crowded with the parents and friends of the participants and heartily applauded the efforts of the boys and girls. A splendidly staged program was rendered, which consisted of music, songs and recitation. A playlet, heralding the arrival of King Christmas and his bride, Queen Christmas was given. All of the parts were well taken and the young actors deserve great praise for their efforts. Special mention should be made of the characters but it would require a roll call of the school to do so.

The teachers are to be congratulated upon the manner in which they trained their children and their efforts won the praise of all the parents.

TRUSTEES MEET

At the last meeting of the board of trustees a number of residents of the Jefferson avenue district were present and requested the board to have the condition of Jefferson avenue improved. The board had previously instructed City Engineer Dimmitt to prepare plans for paving the road as far as Iris street. The residents present, asked thru their spokesman, E. A. Wallin that these improvements be continued at least as far as Hayes street. The majority of the property owners, said Wallin, were in favor of having the street paved. It was, therefore, ordered by the trustees that plans and specifications be drawn up as far as the town limits. Two concrete bridges will have to be built. They will be paid for by the districts to be formed.

W. W. McCormick, a resident of Oak Knoll Manor, addressed the board on the subject of the road to that district. The road needed repaving, said McCormick, in order that the school bus might be able to serve about thirty-five children resident in that district. It was finally decided by the board to instruct superintendent of streets, Dearborn, to make repair on this road not in excess of $100.

A communication was received from H. McBurney of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., in answer to a request of the board that that company paint their poles on the highway and on Main street. McBurney said that this would be done early in the spring.

A request for a permit to hold a dance on December 30 was received from the Peninsula Merry Makers Club. Permission was granted.

The matter of improving Chestnut out beyond the city water works was brought up by Trustee Beeger who said he had been talking with Geo. A. Merrill of the Redwood City Harbor Co. The Harbor Co., said Beeger, was willing to pay two-thirds of the total cost of paving this part of Chestnut street, which would be about $1,500. Beeger, said he had also spoken to the managers of the Plant Rubber and Asbestos Works, and the Alaska Godfish Company and that each of those firms was willing to contribute something toward the cost of improving the street. It was suggested by superintendent of streets, Ed Dearborn, that trucks be used to haul the gravel necessary for this work, instead of using the railway cars which dump only on one side, thus necessitating much shoveling.

City Engineer Dimmitt reported that he had received prices for the shoring necessary for the city hall grounds. He read estimates from two firms on the shoring and as one was considerably lower than the other he was instructed to proceed with laying out the grounds.

Dimmitt also presented the board with a map of a new sub-division, the Selby Lane acres which was accepted by the board.

The Board instructed the City Engineer to prepare plans and specifications for extending the city sewer on James street to the city limits and to run the sewer to the Robinson, Eagle Hill tract and to the west end of Central Park.

SYR LORENE GOES A HUNTING

By Syr Elberte Pynkhamme and Syr Harry McCormicke
PESCADERO UNION HIGH SCHOOL

Quoth Syr Elberte to Syr Lorene: "Let's up, bolde Knighte! I the mornye,

And don to ye rockes at the ebb-tyde Where ye abalones abyde."

Quoth Syr Lorene to Syr Elberte: "Y'm wyth ye, my bolde Syr. A-mouned we'll hye! the mornynz. For ye demone beares to speare."

Ye Knightes arose! the mornynz. Ere ye some came burstynz forthie And with their hearts 'fo' scornynz. A-mouned a lone, poore horse.

Ye knightes reached ye baye wyth spyryte, And felle to ye huntynz fu' fine; And, forsothe, some caughte ye lymthe— Ye lymthe one and synne.

"Syr Lorene," quoth Syr Elberte, "Thy nagge, I sweare, wyll kycke Yf thou persyst yn mountynz. Carryng bothe game and stycke."

"Syr Elberte," quoth Syr Lorene, "Forsothe, Syr, never mynde— Thy tonge was ever forwarde— Syr Lorene rydes this tyme."

Ye bolde Syr Knighte, Lorene eclopte Ynto ye styrrups gayly stepte And swaghe alofte hys awyche; Ye stode lepte forthie and wyldly shyed.

"Ye world's on ende," Syr Lorene cryed, And crawled forthie fro' the dyche.

"Sadde," quoth Syr Elberte, "to relate, What was, yn sooth, Syr Lorene's fate, Mayhappe, he roams fro' lea to lea, Or seeks ye beares by the sea."

(5) A WEATHER-PROOF POWER PLANT

Our latest hydro-electric plant—Pit River No. 1—with the largest installed capacity of any plant in the State (93,834 H. P.) was placed in operation September 30th. This is normally the season when stream flows in California are lowest, and stored waters in reservoirs are being heavily drawn upon. It is, therefore, a somewhat unique situation that this plant, without the aid of storage and depending entirely on the normal flow of Pit River, is operating practically at its maximum capacity, thus fulfilling our expectations as to its extraordinary value for the constant production of electric energy, practically regardless of annual rain and snow-fall.

Pit River No. 1 is but one of the twenty-four hydro-electric plants owned by the Company, and all of these, in addition to the modern steam plants and eighteen gas manufacturing plants, are only a part of the large assets back of our First Preferred Stock.

California leads the nation in hydro-electric production, and the Pacific Gas and Electric Company leads in hydro-electric production in California.
